General Information

Who Should Attend

This program is planned to meet the needs of pediatricians (researchers, teachers, and/or clinicians), pediatric psychologists, nurses, social workers and other healthcare providers and researchers interested in developmental and behavioral pediatrics. A variety of educational formats will encourage the exchange of new scientific and clinical information and support the interchange of opinions regarding care and management issues relevant to developmental and behavioral pediatrics. Scientific material will be presented through symposia, oral abstracts, concurrent sessions, plenary sessions, small group sessions designed for in-depth exploration of specific topics, and poster presentations.

Purpose

Bring together interprofessional clinicians, educators, and researchers to advance the knowledge and management of children with developmental-behavioral issues and their families.

Goals

After attending this meeting the participants will be able to:

1. Discuss advances in the treatment of ADHD, ASD and other developmental-behavioral disorders.
2. Describe practice variation to assess and treat developmental and behavioral problems and outcomes to assess effectiveness.
3. Understand the trajectory of various developmental-behavioral conditions across the through transition into young adulthood.
4. Discuss evidence based treatments for various DBP conditions and how to implement them into practice.
5. Learning novel ways to enhance family participation in DBP clinical care and research.

Registration

All attendees must be registered for the meeting. Registration hours are listed in the Schedule-At-A-Glance on the inside front cover.

Half-Day Workshops

A select number of courses addressing the needs of pediatricians, psychologists and other professionals caring for children with developmental or behavioral problems will be presented. Workshops will be in half-day formats and Registration for these sessions is in addition to the Annual Meeting registration.

Abstracts

Abstracts selected for the 2018 SDBP Annual Meeting will be presented in platform, concurrent, and poster sessions highlighting the most outstanding papers from a variety of subspecialties related to pediatric developmental and behavioral medicine. All accepted abstracts of new and previously presented research are available on the SDBP

Meeting App and online at the SDBP Meeting Page (www.sdbp.org/annual_meeting.cfm). Abstracts presenting new scientific findings will also be published online in the Journal of Developmental and Behavioral Pediatrics.

Poster Sessions

Two different Meet the Author poster sessions highlighting both new and previously presented research will be held on Saturday, September 15th from 6:00pm - 7:00pm and on Sunday, September 16th from 6:00pm - 7:00pm.

Exhibits

Exhibits will be located in the Marquis North Ballroom throughout the duration of our meeting.

Photo Release

By attending the SDBP Annual Meeting, registrants consent to be photographed during the course of the meeting, with the understanding that those images may be used in SDBP documents, publications or on the website. If you prefer to not have your image used by SDBP, please contact info@sdbp.org or visit the SDBP Registration Desk.

Lectureship Award

The 2018 SDBP Lectureship Award Recipient is:

Benard P. Dreyer, MD, FAAP

Dr. Benard Dreyer is a general and Development-Behavioral pediatrician who has spent his professional lifetime serving poor children and families. Professor of Pediatrics at NYU, he leads the Division of Developmental-Behavioral Pediatrics, is Director of Pediatrics at Bellevue Hospital, and also works as a hospitalist. He is a Past President of the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), having served his terms as President Elect (2015), President (2016) and Immediate Past President (2017). He is currently serving as the AAP's Medical Director for Policies.

For over 30 years he led a primary care program at Bellevue, including co-located mental and oral health services and clinics in homeless shelters. His research is focused on interventions in primary care to improve early childhood outcomes, including early brain development, early language development and obesity. As AAP President, he took a leadership role in the AAP's Strategic Priority on Poverty and Child Health. Dr. Dreyer was president of the Academic Pediatric Association (APA), and founded and chairs the APA Task Force on Childhood Poverty and the APA Research Scholars Program.

Interprofessional Leadership for Developmental-Behavioral Health

Our Mission is to improve the health and well being of children and their families by supporting interdisciplinary professionals to advance the field of developmental and behavioral pediatrics.

Visit www.sdbp.org to join and see the list of many benefits that membership offers!

ARE YOU A DEVELOPMENTAL-BEHAVIORAL PEDIATRIC ADVOCATE?

The answer is yes!

DBP professionals are natural advocates for the children and families we see. Every day, we help our children access services and help families learn to navigate complex systems. But sometimes we have to take it to the next level. If you are concerned about the way that governmental laws and policies affect our children, or feel there should be changes to these laws and policies, you need to advocate “Beyond the Exam Room!”

ADVOCACY OPPORTUNITIES (during the SDBP meeting and beyond...)

1. Participate in our “Advocacy Action Moment” on Monday, September 17 at 8:45 AM Pacific time. We will have a 15 minute opportunity to participate in advocacy on a DBP-related topic (to be announced). Details will follow at the annual membership meeting and on our Advocacy Committee information board (see below).
2. Check out the Advocacy Committee information board – in addition to details about the Advocacy Action Moment, we will have information about how to contact your legislators, track current legislation and how to register to vote if you have not already done so.

Midterm elections are right around the corner! It’s time to register to vote, or to check to be sure your registration is up to date. A good starting point is www.Vote411.org, which will take you to your local voter registration site. Other options include: <https://www.usa.gov/register-to-vote>, <https://www.rockthevote.org/voting-information/>, or <https://www.headcount.org/>.

3. For ongoing updates and resource information, subscribe to the Advocacy Committee thread on the SDBP Discussion Board and check out the Advocacy folder in the E-Library.
4. Chat with Advocacy Committee members during the annual meeting to find out more about how you can get involved. Join us for the Advocacy Committee meeting on Sunday, September 16 at 7:00AM!

Thank you!

The SDBP Board of Directors would like to thank all those who give generously to the Society for Developmental and Behavioral Pediatrics.

SDBP’s membership is growing every year and that means expanding our reach to further impact the care of children with developmental and behavioral concerns. We rely on membership donations to accomplish this and to continue to sustain the activities which are core to our society.
